

Women's Figure Skating History

2008-2009

The Women's Figure Skating team captured the 2009 OUA Championship title, hosted by the Toronto Varsity Blues. The Gryphons led the championships from start to finish, capturing only their second OUA team title (1993-94). Guelph's All-Star trio of Ariel Porty (Guelph, ON), Sandra McCubbin (Barrie, ON) and Laura Barbison (Brampton, ON) led the way for the Gryphons. Porty was golden in the Open Solo Dance and partnered with Barbison to capture a second gold in the Senior Silver Similar Dance category. Barbison, Porty, McCubbin and Caitlin McCann (Barrie, ON) again stood atop the podium in the Bronze Rhythm Dance Fours. McCubbin claimed a second gold in the Senior Silver Solo Dance as did teammate Charlotte Drewett (Cambridge, ON) in the Senior Silver Ladies event. Four Gryphons were named as OUA All-Stars including Barbison, Drewett, McCubbin and Porty.

2001-2002

The Gryphon Figure Skaters accomplished their goal of 5th place at the OUA Championships at Western. This was an excellent accomplishment for such a young team. Notable performances include that of: Becky Miklos' personal best for 3rd place in the Junior Silver Freeskate event which earned the team 5 points and Melissa Cotesta and Lisa Pinelli had an outstanding skate for 2nd place in the Senior Similar Pairs event which earned the team 7 points. In the Synchronized event, the Gryphons took 2nd place earning the team 10 points which moved them up to 5th overall after sitting in 6th place for the majority of the competition. The Gryphons were also presented with the inaugural OUA Team Spirit Award. They were voted the winners by every university that participated in OUA's for their outstanding sportsmanship and supportive cheering for every team to take the ice.

2000-2001

At the OUA Figure Skating Championship hosted by the University of Guelph, the Gryphs captured the bronze and were only one point shy of runner up, Waterloo. Every Gryphon skater improved throughout the course of the season whether they moved up in their standings or skated a personal best. Dance team captain, Erin Jacobs, placed in the top 2 in all 6 of the events that she competed in contributing 53 points to the Gryphons point total of 75. Rookie, Jill Neelson, combined with Jacobs for two firsts and had 2 second place finishes as well. Both individuals were OUA All Stars as a result of their placings. The synchronized team that has 16 Gryphons performing on the ice at the same time finished 2nd.
